

Louisiana Bulldogs Hall of Fame Criteria

Over the years, there have been many individuals and teams who have made a significant and lasting impact on the athletic programs of the Louisiana R-2 School District. These people have portrayed the school district and its athletic programs in a positive manner. These individuals deserve to be inducted in the Louisiana Bulldogs Athletic Hall of Fame.

Nominated individuals and teams will be examined by the Hall of Fame Selection Committee and then selected based on their achievements during and after their playing career. The Louisiana Bulldogs Hall of Fame recognizes and pays tribute to both living and deceased outstanding individual athletes and coaches, as well as state championship teams as a team.

Nominations will close on before Christmas and will be reviewed annually. In addition, the Hall of Fame Selection Committee will welcome any additional supplemental factual history and statistics supporting any nominee.
