The National Honor Society was first organized by the Louisiana School system in 1961. The membership enrollment for that year totaled twelve. The 1967 enrollment totals twenty-seven.

National Honor Society is based on four principles: Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service. Members are chosen by their achievements in these categories.

STUDENT COUNCIL

STUDENT COUNCIL MEMBERS: Mrs. E. Morrow, sponsor, J. Kritz, P. Naxera, G. Hemphill, S. Ambra, P. Littrell, S. Bandy, K.

Swenson, M. Gierke, L. Holtzman, E. Webb, G. Perkins, C. Cunningham, B. Rege, A. Benning, D. Strode, A. Abel, D. Hunt.

The 1966-67 LHS Student Council had a successful and busy year. The council sponsored Homecoming, co-sponsored the Senior-Faculty Basketball game, and once again worked to raise money for a foreign exchange student. The biggest council project was the revision of the constitution. By the way, most of the funny-looking people selling tickets or candy at basketball or football games were council members—sometimes it's hard to tell.

HIGHLIGHTS STAFF

Mrs. Griffith, Sponsor, J. Griego, S. Smith, B. Travis, L. Best, J. Weaver, R. Hoaglin, M. Harison, J. Smith, B. Cheonweth, J. Coleman.

Highlights is the official school publication to inform the public of students, personnel, and school activities which the Press Journal does not ordinarily include in its coverage of news.

The science club helped sponsor the first Louisiana High Science Fair, with the help of Mrs. Kenneth King, P.T.A. President and Mr. Joseph B. Marx. Ann Thomas won first place in the fair, Janice Trower, second place and Warren King third place. Two honorary memberships were given for outstanding service to the organization. They were given to: Mrs. Kenneth King for her support and establishment of a Science Fair; and to Mr. Joseph B. Marx for being the chairman of the Science Fair. Activities of the year included a trip to Columbia and having various speakers at the meetings.
