TIMES CHANGE

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven;

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

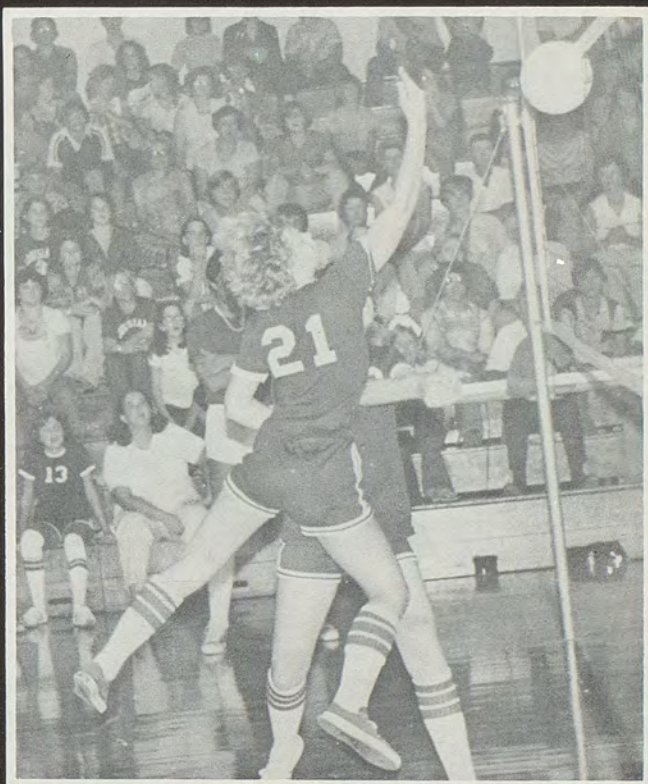

Ecclesiastes 3: 1-8

Student Council finally decided to finish the LHS on the north side of the football field. The L was made by L-Club in 1972.

Even though there was a lot of whitewashing the job was completed. It took student effort, hard work and determination, but everyone had fun. Wayne B.

Smith Inc. donated the rocks.

The 1978-79 school year was full of changes. The LHS was completed, girls started volleyball as a winter sport and the school board decided to allow smoking. Smokers, who had been defacing restrooms illegally for a long time, were given the space under the front canopy for smoking. Ash cans, full of garbage, butts and trash, symbolized the new freedom. Junk on the lawn and in the bushes were constant reminders that the smokers had won.

Recognition Rally Principal Says Thanks For Jobs Well Done

The "spirit stick" was won by cheerleaders at NCA summer camp. It was awarded to the class with the best spirit at pep rallies.

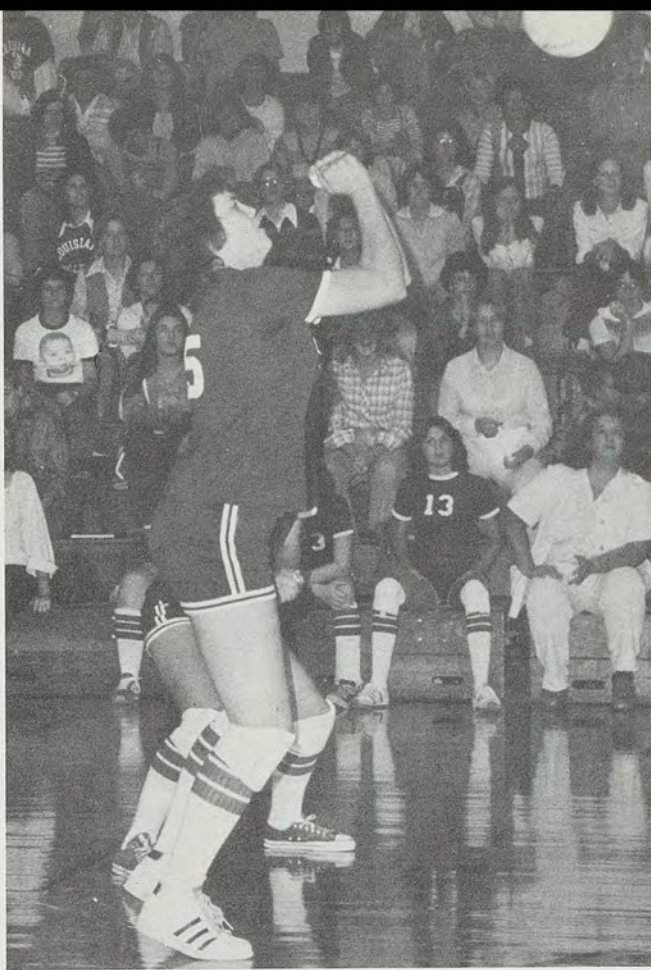

Anytime, anywhere, it could happen. Whether in the quadrangle, at the flagpole or in the football stadium, the new surprise rally was intended to say "thank you."

Thanks to football players, the Student Council, cheerleaders, band, teachers, etc., were in order when Mr. Giltner called a rally. It was different, but nice.

Mr. Giltner said he called everyone out of class to take notice of and show appreciation for everyone who took time and effort to support LHS. He added that he hoped the rallies would raise school spirit and help get more students involved in school activities.

Girls Go Out For Volleyball New Fall Sport For Girls

Times were changing. Girls at LHS were offered a fall sport for the first time; volleyball. They competed against the other six teams in the conference. Louisiana sports fans were wild about football, liked boys' basketball, but they seemed to take a wait-and-see attitude toward the new girls' sport. To win a match, a team had to outscore the opponent in two out of three games. Most fans were unprepared for the unfamiliar terms, set it up! Spike it! They found scoring difficult to understand at first. But the girls were off and running, hoping for a better second season. COMING OUT FOR VOLLEYBALL

The support staff was very important to our school year. Without them it would have been impossible to keep the school running. These very important people were: Top left; the cooks, Irene Miles, Nina Lawrence and Jean Stark. Top right; building maintenance, Arthur Hampton and Richard Miller. Above left; Florence Yeager, secretary. Above right; Cleo Ransdell, secretary.

BOOSTER CLUB

The Bulldog Boosters are a group of adults, between 200 and 300 strong, who support the athletics program. Besides faithful attendance at home and away games, the Boosters ran the concession stand and home basketball games and track meets. They provided programs for basketball games and some Boosters helped officiate at track meets.

They sold Bulldog jackets and provided the money to purchase the awards given at the All-Sports banquet. The Boosters find other ways to help athletics. The weight machine was purchased by this group. Board of Directors: Joe Henderson, Tom Wallace, Fred Naxera, Tony Stark and Bill Boston. Officers: Jack Sencenbaugh, president; Sue Jones, treasurer; Frances Elgin, secretary.

Student Council At Work

Under the leadership of Kim Salmons, president, (far upper right) and Mr. David Hunter, the new sponsor, Student Council led the school with new ideas and activities. They finished the LHS on the hill in the fall (right and below). They sold carnations for Valentine's day. They also sponsored two dances, Homecoming and the Christmas dance.

Drama

The class of 19 drama students put on plays for the high school, primary school, and Smith-Barr Manor. The first play put on for the high school was to promote the Alamo. Christmas and Easter plays were put on for primary. Although the children enjoyed both plays, the passing out of candy topped it all. Drama lets a person escape reality to entertain others.

PEP CLUB

MORK VISITS L.H.S.

Mork and Mindy was a popular TV show in '78-'79. Mork, a person from an advanced planet, Ork, landed on Earth to learn and report back to his commander, Orson. Mork decided to visit a typical small town high school, and he chose LHS. He wanted to learn a little more about why earthlings act the way they do. What better place to go than where earthlings have been educated and spun into society's web?

"Teen-Agers" Do Strange Things

Mork tries to understand the strange actions of the beings sometimes called "teen agers." 1-"Do they have a class that teaches them to act like Spanish animals?" 2-"Do they have a class for learning how to walk invisible animals on a leash?" 3-"Here they are learning to read each other's minds by touching hands!" 4-"The school has three time deminsions; inside the school, on campus, and the area surrounding the campus." 5-"They wear clothing that is numbered. Several of these people must have been made in the same place because I see 79's, 80's and 81's all over the place." 6-"They have Siamese twins on earth, too!" 7-"The students hold prayer sessions before the big semester examinations." 8-"Is this what students call 'necking'?" 9-"I didn't know that bathing was a spectator sport!" 10-"Is that wooden devide she's sitting on a kind of spaceship they learn to drive in drivers' ed?" 11-"Why would they have a class in school to teach them to make-up like that?"

"They Have A
Volcano On Their Campus!"

1- "These Siamese quads have the same locker room. I wonder if it's the girls' or boys'." 2- "Do they get sensation by touching the walls?" 3- "These are my kind of people! Na-noo!" 4- "They have their own marching army." 5- "They learn how to dress like their favorite monster." 6- "There is a volcano on their campus!" 7- "The ratio of five females to one male is great for males!" 8- "She must be privileged. She gets to ride to classes." 9- "All right, my man! A new kind of handshake!"

"MORK: TO ORSON"

Mork: "Your honorable obesity, this is Mork reporting from Earth."

Orson: "What do you have to report this week?"

Mork: "I visited an institution for the education of young adults. The school is run by a person similar to you. You can always hear him throughout the building but never see him. The students call this an intercom system. The students are motivated by bells that ring throughout the day.

This sit deactivated in the classrooms until the next bell rings. At mid-day some students choose to buy what they call a school lunch. They wait in a long line for this but complain after they receive it. Others bring animal flesh wedged between two pieces of wheat squares in brown bags. Sometimes after lunch there is a group of students that are made fools of by other students.

During the year the students participate in different activities. I find a sport they call football to be the most violent. The players grow shells on their shoulders and heads. They shed these for a game they call basketball.

Although I found the schools to be primitive compared to ours, there were emotions found there that are lost on Ork. Some of these feelings are bad, but there is, for the most part, a caring, sharing feeling among the people that congregate in this institution.

Until next year ...
Na-noo! Na-Noo!"

ALAMO STAFF

Quill And Scroll

On May 24 the journalism class received the charter for the first Quill and Scroll chapter ever to exist at LHS. Quill and Scroll is an international honor society for high school journalists. Its purpose is to reward individual students for meritorious work on school publications.

Working on Alamo was an extra activity that took place mostly after school hours. Anyone can volunteer to work on Alamo. The completion of the work is owed, however, to a very few of those volunteers who worked up until the last page was finished. The real work is having enough pictures to include everyone in the school. Drawing layouts and writing copy is time consuming. Writing and showing the history of the school for a single year is exciting, so the greatest rewards went to those who gave the most.

HIGHLIGHTS HAS A JOB TO DO . . .

Publishing Highlights is the main task of the journalism class. Student journalists have the opportunity to develop social attitudes and characteristics that will bring a lifetime of benefits. Journalism develops qualities of character and personality desirable in good citizenship.'

The school newspaper strives to serve the school as much as possible. It can create a unified spirit in a school. It tries to lead the school in building student opinion that will lead to positive group action.

The school newspaper brings the school into the community, thus fostering better understanding. The paper benefits the student, the school and community.

During the year, Karen C., Diane R. and Kim served as editors-in-chief of the all girl staff. Patty learned darkroom procedures and did the majority of film developing and picture printing. Karen C. was photographer. Melanie "dummied up" the pages and Julie was art editor.

The class felt that though coverage of school issues and problems the paper had a positive influence on the school year. Some issues were: teenage pregnancy, smoking policy, abuse of voting rights, alcohol use, lunchroom behavior, vandalism and freshman hazing.

A Time For Creating Memories

Seniors Go Out In Style

It was their last Homecoming as students at LHS. Seniors, underclassmen, players, and fans alike were caught up in the pageantry and pomp that is traditional on the night of the Homecoming game. It was October 13 and the Bulldogs were making pussy cats of the Monroe City Panthers.

COURT W A R M I N G

Courtwarding week started with Monday as Hush Day but this time the guys had to zip their lips.

Seniors relived the 20's with the slogan "Speak Easy". Juniors were into the future. Sophomores were reviving the 50's with bobby socks and leather jackets. Freshmen dressed like the 60's.

A new event for Courtwarding week was the cheerleaders' contest to see which one of them would kiss a pig. The winners were Brenda Branstetter and Tonya Brossia, who kissed and hugged the lucky piglet during Friday's assembly.

The Friday assembly was "discofied" when cheerleaders and pom pon girls dazzled the crowd with a dance that captured the mood of "discomania" '79.

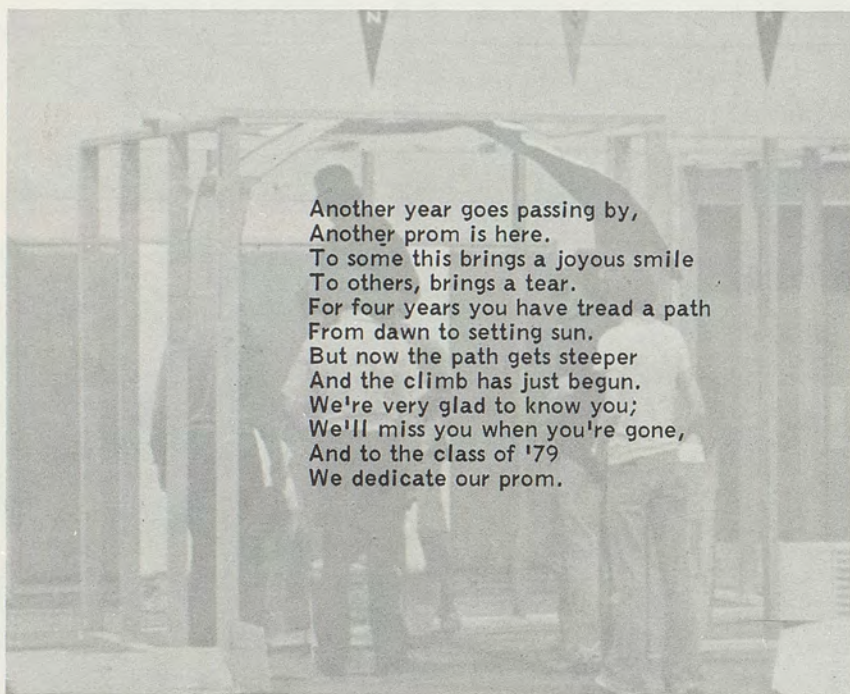

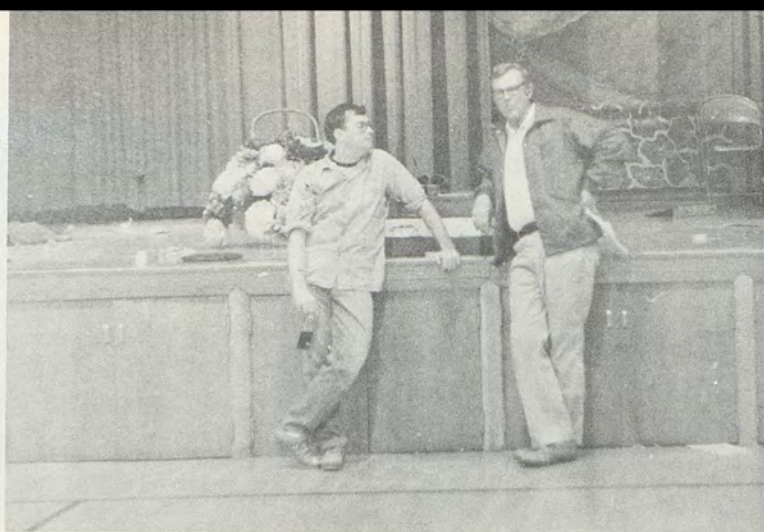

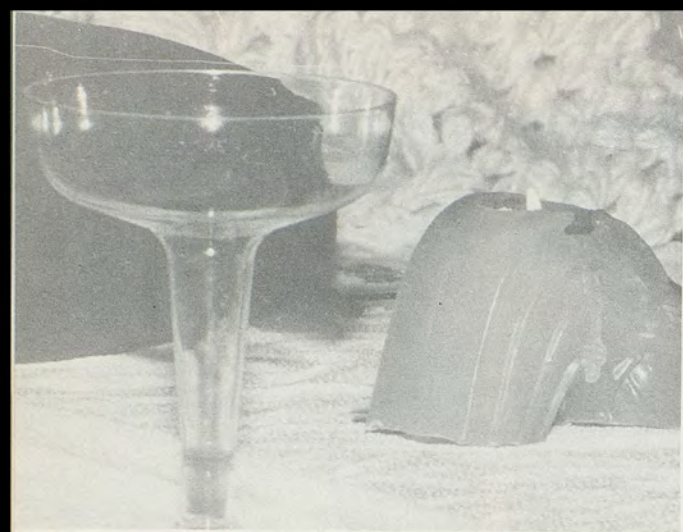

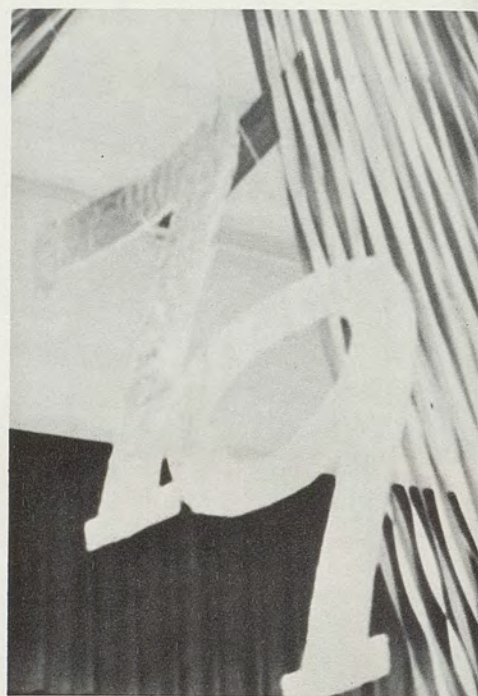

The Seniors took first place in the skits with Doug Waltman as his dad, a KPCR radio announcer.

Top left: Brenda Traynor, freshman attendant, and Roger Pursifal, escort. Top center: Willetta Salmons, sophomore attendant, and Fred Naxera, escort. Another year goes passing by,
Another prom is here.
To some this brings a joyous smile
To others, brings a tear.
For four years you have tread a path
From dawn to setting sun.
But now the path gets steeper
And the climb has just begun.
We're very glad to know you;
We'll miss you when you're gone,
And to the class of '79
We dedicate our prom.

PROM

Junior-Senior Prom was entitled "Somewhere Over the Rainbow." As always, hard work, lots of effort, and even more fun went into this year's prom. The juniors brought back the old tradition of King and Queen of Prom. Bottom Right: Melanie Greer introduces the '78-'79 King and Queen, Donnie Grover and Diane Whipple.

AFTERHOURS

Students had many and varied ways of occupying out-of-school time. Some had jobs. Though time consuming, the cash came in handy for gas, movies, or another pair of jeans. But even they occasionally had time to relax. For some, relaxation was a quiet hour in the park with a special friend and a friendly pooch. Others found that a cool snack at the DQ very rewarding. Shopping for clothes, gifts, or just plain shopping for fun was another pleasurable pursuit. And for the athletic-minded, frisbee, cycling, or jogging was the name of the game. There were countless other ways that students occupied their time. What did you do?

Surprise Doubling Fans With 5-5 Record

Tony Gschwender, first-year head coach of the football team, said the 1978 season could be broken down into two separate seasons. "The first half of the season we were on top, playing good football. The second half we saw some injuries and never could regain the momentum. (of the first half)."

Coach Gschwender added that he felt they were a better team than the 5-5 record showed. "We were a team that never gave up. We fought back to win many games." Even when they lost, Gschwender said, "We always let the opponent know they were in a football game." Coach said a plus for the season was that many young players got playing experience for the future. The seniors, he said, gained the knowledge and experience of competition.

At LHS the boys had the first hand in sports, with football, basketball and track. But in the 1978-1979 school year volleyball was added for the girls to equal things out. And it looks like it worked.

The season started out well for the girls in the first match of the season. The J.V. won against Monroe City but, unfortunately, it was a loss for the varsity.

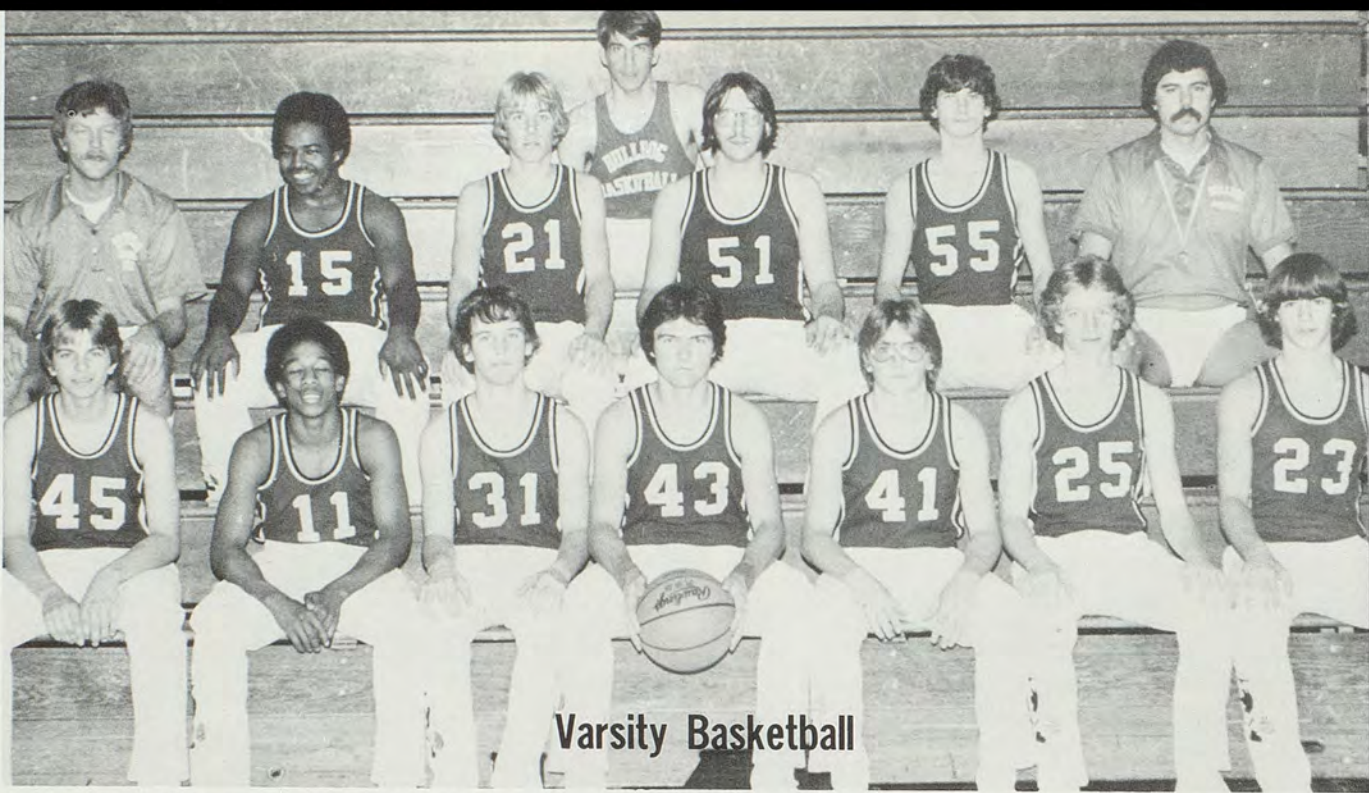

After that things changed. The varsity won the next three. At the close of the season the varsity had a 4-4 record, not bad for their first year. In District play the girls fell to Bowling Green.

Varsity letterwomen were Sherri Sencenbaugh, senior; Jan Fritz, junior; Valerie Kuntz, junior; Joy Weese, junior; Jamie Akers, freshman; Jerri Ince, freshman; and Jennifer Todd, freshman.

A special tribute went to Sherri Sencenbaugh for her unique devotion to sports. "Without her," one teammate stated, "the inexperience and youth of our team would have shown more. Another thing, practice would have been a drag."

Varsity Basketball Has 12-12 Season

The Varsity Basketball Bulldogs began the season having lost three players. This left a big gap with only two experienced Varsity players, Wallace and Chatman. Though not expected to win many games, the Bulldogs showed pride and determination in finishing the season with a 12-12 mark. During the rebuilding year the Bulldogs pulled several upsets, with the highlight of the year at Courtwarming when they defeated highly-rated Highland. This was accomplished when Wallace, in the last three seconds of overtime, made a crucial steal for the winning basket.

This was Coach Bill Blanton's sixth year of coaching, with the last three years at LHS, where he has had a 41-31 win-loss record.

A highlight of the year, said Coach, was when Wallace and Chatman made the Pleasant Hill All-Tournament team. Coach said the team had high hopes with Chatman returning for the '79 season.

Sherri Makes It To The Top

Senior, Sherri Sencenbaugh, left, made LHS history in girls basketball. As team captain, she led the girls to a 4 win 6 loss season. her greatest achievement was her 40 point game against Winfield. Hard effort paid off for Sherri. She was the first girl at LHS to make first team All-Conference, All-District, and All-State. She played varsity 4 years and was on the starting line-up for 3 years.

One team member said the young, inexperienced team's greatest weakness was not knowing enough of the fundamentals of the game. Their greatest strength was a desire to win and the capable ball-handling of Sencenbaugh.

BAND AND MUSIC

Marching Band And Pep Band

For the first time, Pep Band received letters for their extra work. In Pep Band were: R. Hunter, B. Turner, Andy Cox, J. Minihan, R. Penrod, J.E. Meyers, S. Travis, P. Renner, B.B. Martin, C. Powell, T. Griffith, B. Shroeder, K. Carlton, P. Rubemeyer, R. Willis, J. Washington, D. Swenson, T. Bokor, J. Brossia, J. Eipper, S. Traynor, J. Browning, J. Corbin.

CONCERT BAND: A HIT

As "Grease" was a popular movie, the medley "Grease" was also a hit with both the band players and the audience.

The band easily tired of "The Great Waldo Pepper March". Not only was it played for concert, but it was also taken to contest. It and "Festivo" fetched the band a one-rating at district contest, held in Mexico, Mo. This surprised many members of the band!

BRONZE MEDALISTS

Athletes aren't the only ones who can get medals for their success. Because of the one-rating made at district contest, the band members were eligible for a blue ribbon medal. The ensembles and soloists who went to state contest could buy medals for the ratings they received. These medals had not been offered in the past few years.

District ratings: Mixed Clarinet Quartet-I, Full Band-I, Sax Trio I, Brass Quartet-II, Brass Sextet-II, V. Garth-II, Clarinet Quartet-I, K. Christensen-I, Flute Trio I-I, Flute Trio II-II, B. Turner-I.

"The Sound of Music," performed November 9 and 10, touched the hearts of the audience and those on stage, too. Many said that the musical was one of the finest the Music Department had ever staged. Some went further to say it was the best. It was the first musical at LHS directed by Albert Conrad.

Music Is The Universal Language . . .

The beginning of the year was hectic while music students and new teacher, Mr. Conrad, got to know each other. Mr. Conrad handled music in a professional-like manner. For awhile students griped and said, "that's not the way it used to be." Toward the middle of the year things finally calmed down.

Because of the snow there was no Christmas concert but the songs didn't go to waste. The students went caroling in the halls and Santa and his elves joined them.

After Christmas music was put away, the choir began to work on music for district contest. Everyone's favorite sight reading exercise was "Pussy's in the Well."

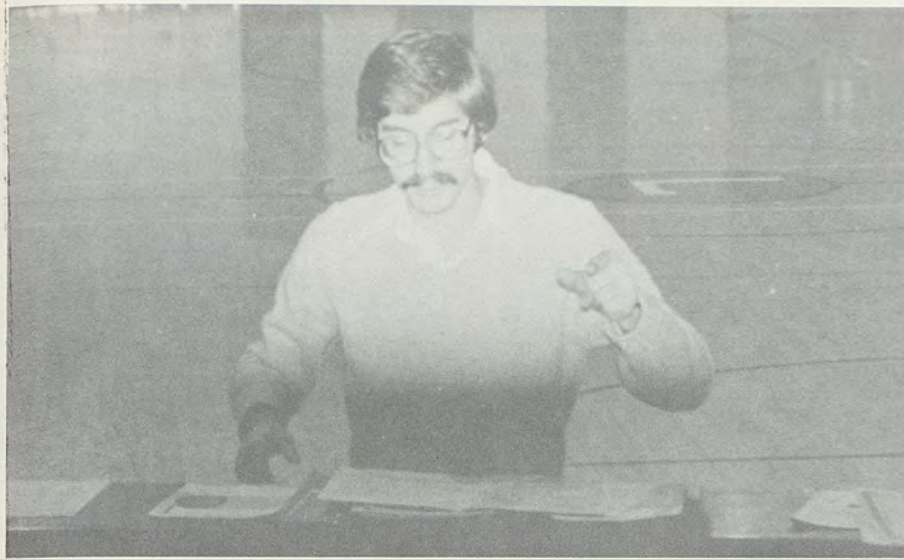

Chamber choir, a group of superior choir members, performed for many organizations and activities throughout the year.

The Freshman Class of '78-'79 had a great year! At first they were a little scared, but since upperclassman were not too mean to them, they began to feel somewhat secure. By the time Homecoming rolled around, the ninth graders were up with the best of them. Float building went along successfully, grabbing third place. But their whacky skit, with John Eipper as Elmer Fudd, won first place! A freshman, Pam Gillis, even captured the coveted lead role in the musical. Though their class meetings were riotous, they usually got a lot done.

SOPHOMORES

The '78-'79 school year was filled with many changes for the Sophomore Class. We were no longer worried about what the juniors and seniors had up their sleeves. Instead, we were able to get our minds on other things, such as how we could afford to get that car we wanted.

Remember our skits? Pebbles and Bam-Bam for Homecoming and Happy Days for Courtwarming. What a trend! And how about that float? Well, we did get the spirit flag for the first time. That was a victory!

Our classes were filled with mischief and excitement. Saving up those insects for biology was about all we could handle. And the proofs in geometry were getting us down toward the end of the year. But all-in-all, this was a good year and we are looking forward to next year with high hopes and new goals.

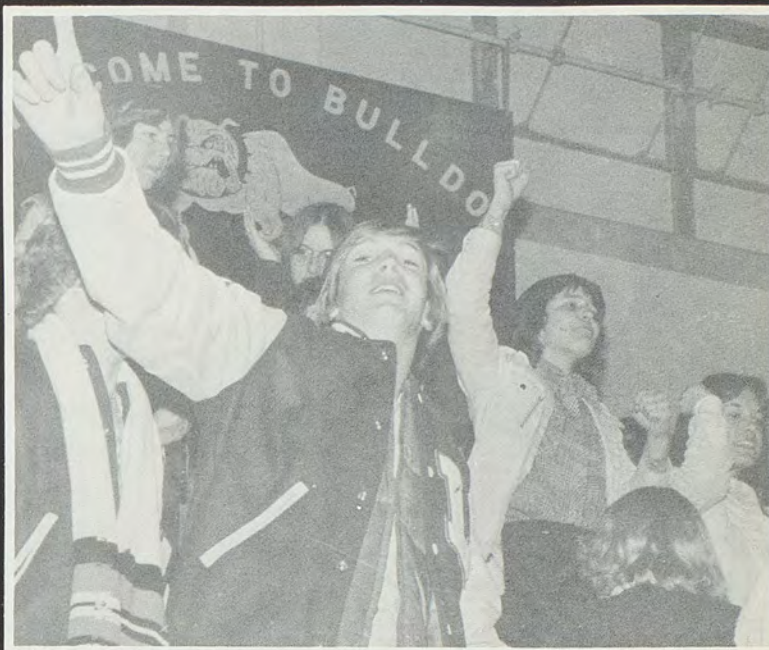

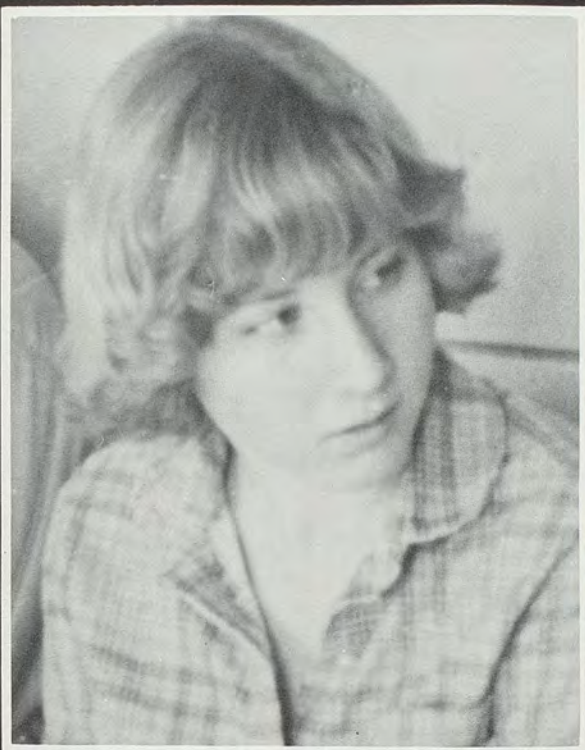

Class officers: Willetta Salmons, vice-president; Judd Martin, president; John Minihan, secretary; Marsha Cox, treasurer.

We finally made it to the big time! We're UPPERCLASSMEN! Our first accomplishment - defeating concession stands. Spirit abounded as we "raised the roof" for the spirit stick. We also captured the prize for collecting the most money and winning the spirit chain. The grand finale of the year was prom. This was our year!

You cringe
And wonder
"Who am I?"
You must not lie.

Images of people places
times

dare to venture through your mind,
Seek and ye shall find.

Encounters within,
evaluation of your wealth
as you glide through the corridors of time.

SENIORS

Class officers: Bill Wunderlich, secretary; Kenny Peabody, treasurer; Diane Whipple, vice president; Donnie Grover, president.

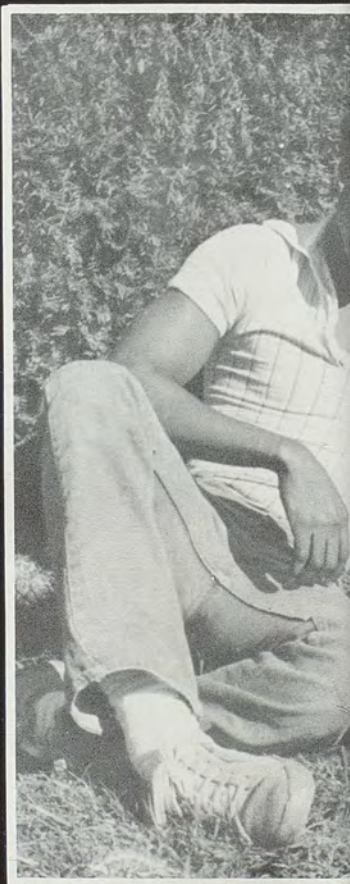

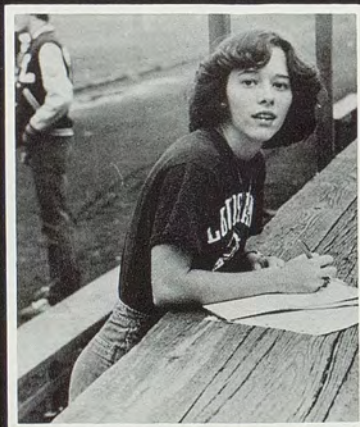

Time cools, time clarifies; no mood can be maintained quite unaltered through the course of hours."

Thomas Mann

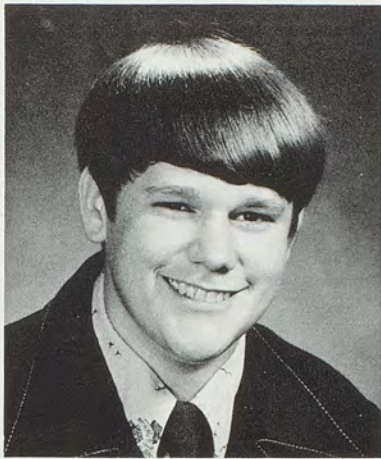

And so are the moods of life. The Seniors passed from one mood to another, from carefree adolescence to adulthood. This passage was paved with mixed emotions. They were afraid of the future, yet they looked forward with eager anticipation. Once they were a vital part of one another's lives, but now they are miles apart in body. In spirit, they shall always be together.

"The crown of these is made of love and friendship and sits high upon the throne of humanity."

"Things do not change,
we change."

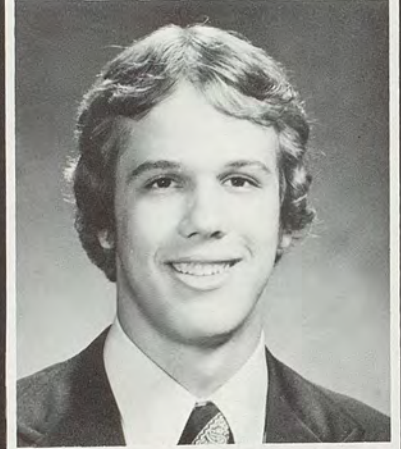

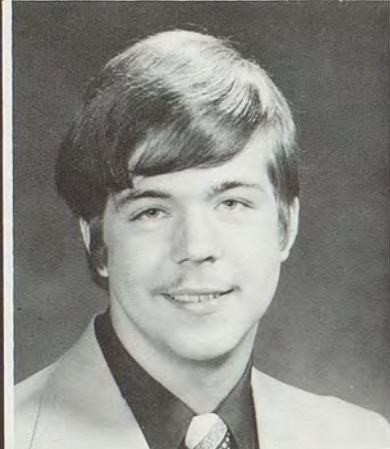

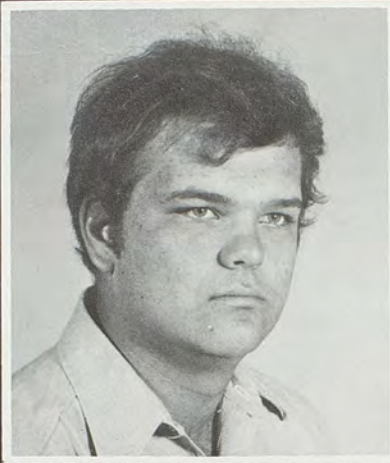

Henry David Thoreau

And change they did.
How could those immature
Freshmen be the same young adults seen on these pages? But they are. They, like so many other young people were suddenly faced with an enormous question.
"What do I do now?" The future was a frightening word to many. It was unknown, and unforeseeable.
Yet the past could not be repeated, except in dreams. Life moves forward.

"The wave of the future
is coming and there is no fighting it."

Anne Morrow
Lindbergh

These people will have strength, the kind of strength that will carry them through the bad times as well as the good.

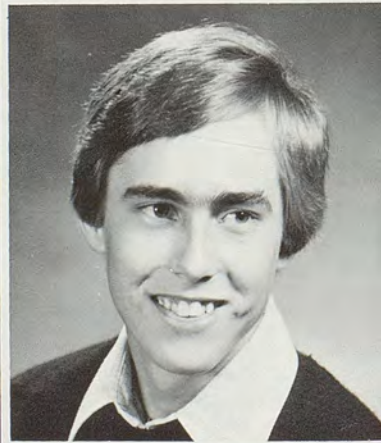

"You gain strength, courage, and confidence by every experience in which you really stop to look fear in the face. You are able to say to yourself, 'I lived through this horror. I can take the next thing that comes along.' ... You must do the thing you think you cannot do."

Anna Eleanor Roosevelt

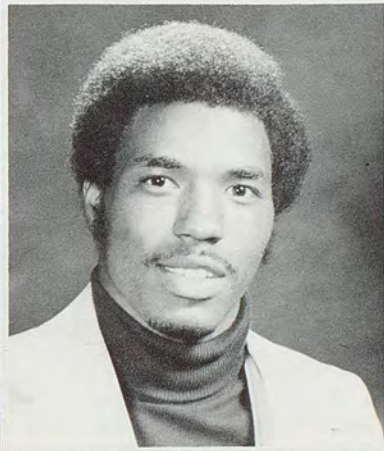

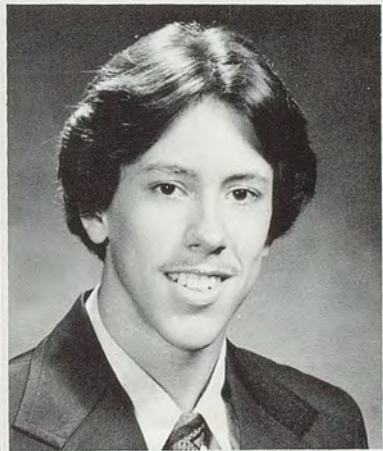

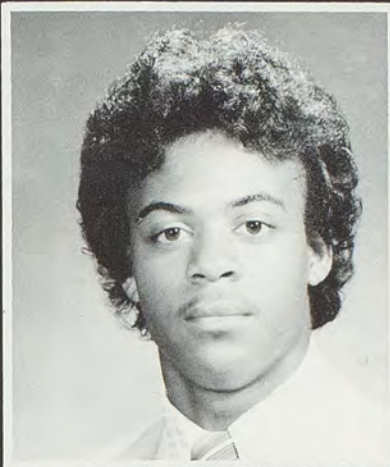

"They will learn from the past, but not dwell in it. They will look ever forward, forward to the sorrow and joy which awaits them."

Lend me the stone strength of the past and I will lend you the wings of the future, for I have them."

"With their dreams, their hopes, and their warm visions of life, they are tomorrow's world. Their lives are yet to be formed and patterned. In time, they will grow to know themselves, and hopefully, realize their dreams.

If one advances confidently in the direction of his dreams, and endeavors to live the life which he has imagined, he will meet with success unexpected in common hours."

Henry David Thoreau

What kind of life awaits them? Will famous men and women return to their class reunions? Will there be wealthy ones among them? Or will they fade into the masses which populate this nation? How many will even survive? Only God can know.

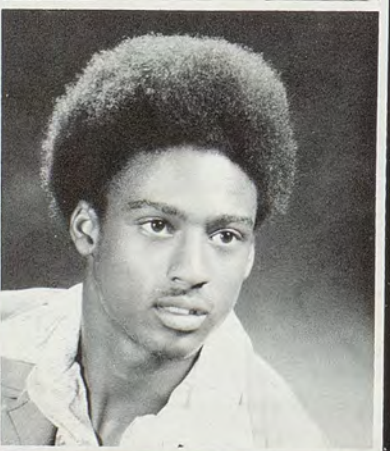

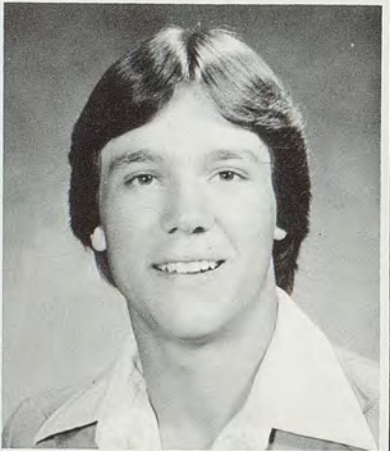

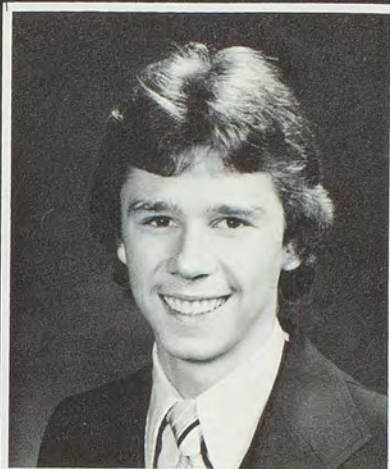

When they are old and gray, they will look back on these years and reminisce. They will cry a little, laugh a lot, and dream of things that were. They will remember dreams that faded, and dreams that came true. They will smile at the memory of romance, and laugh at the old jokes.

"Only a moment; a moment of strength, of romance, of glamour — of youth! ... A flick of sunshine upon a strange shore, the time to remember; the time for a sigh, and — goodbye! — Night — Goodbye ... !"

GRASP THE MOMENT

Savor each second, each sacred drop of time, of life. It falls but once.

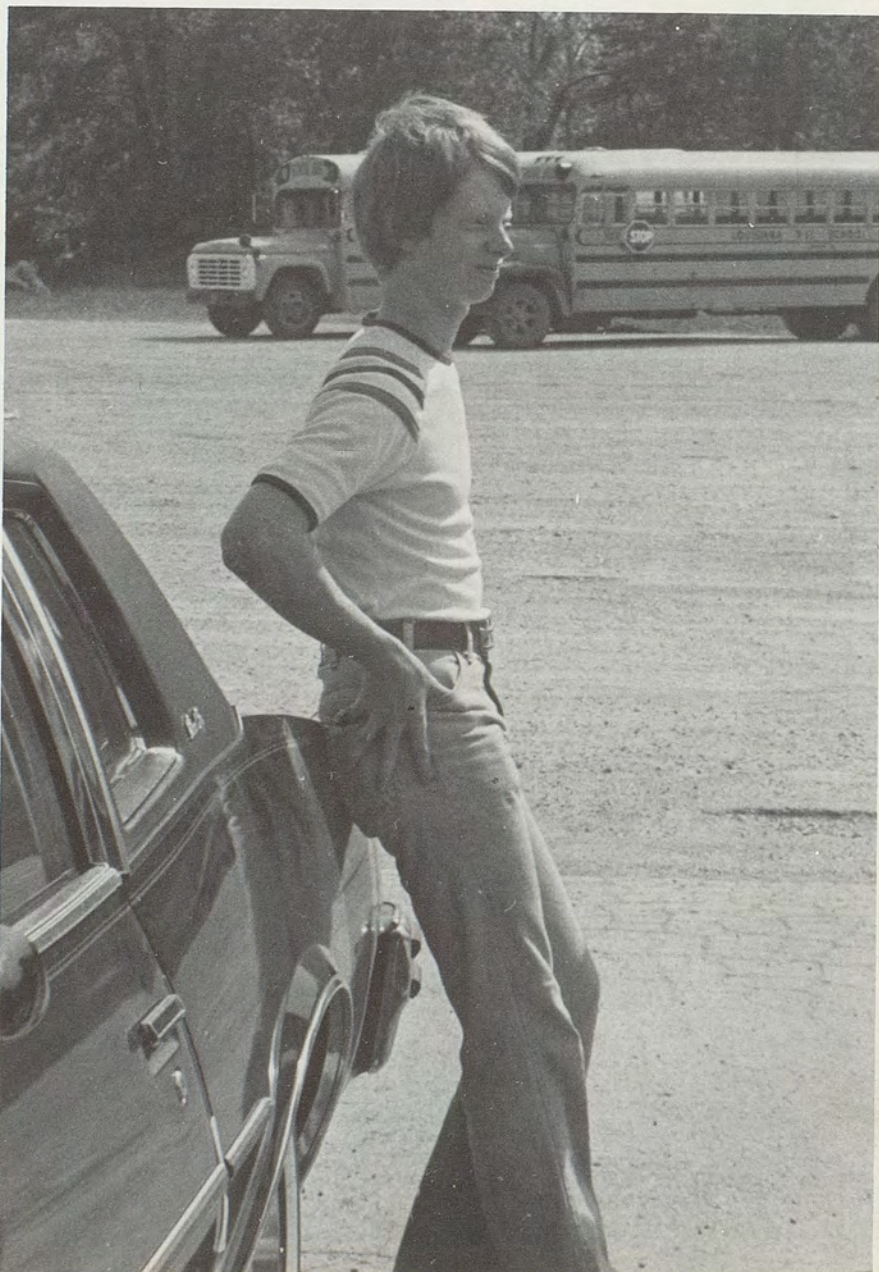

Each moment of the year is a picture, a mood. It is filled with emotion. Each moment stems from the moment before, and each branches to the moment after, creating the tree of life. Each branch is a year, each twig is a day, and each leaf, a special moment in time. The leaves may fall to the ground each winter. But each spring, they are remembered.

AFS FROM BRAZIL

Monica Alves Magalhags, senior, was the AFS student from Brazil. As her native language was Portuguese, she had a few problems with English. Her friends described her as "shy", "sweet", "sincere", "smart", "easy-going", and "quiet". Monica liked the friendliness of the American people, but especially liked American food.

SENIOR TRIP

May 18, after graduation rehearsal, forty-two seniors and two sponsors headed for Six Flags in a crowded, bumpy school bus. When they finally arrived, they found that the park was even more crowded than the bus. The lines for rides were long, the shops were full. People were even waiting in long lines for a hamburger and coke. Later, Old Glory Theater and the surrounding area were packed as fans listened to the music of Head East.

With darkness came a brilliant fireworks display, and a little rain. But a few light showers did little to slow down the swift-moving action.

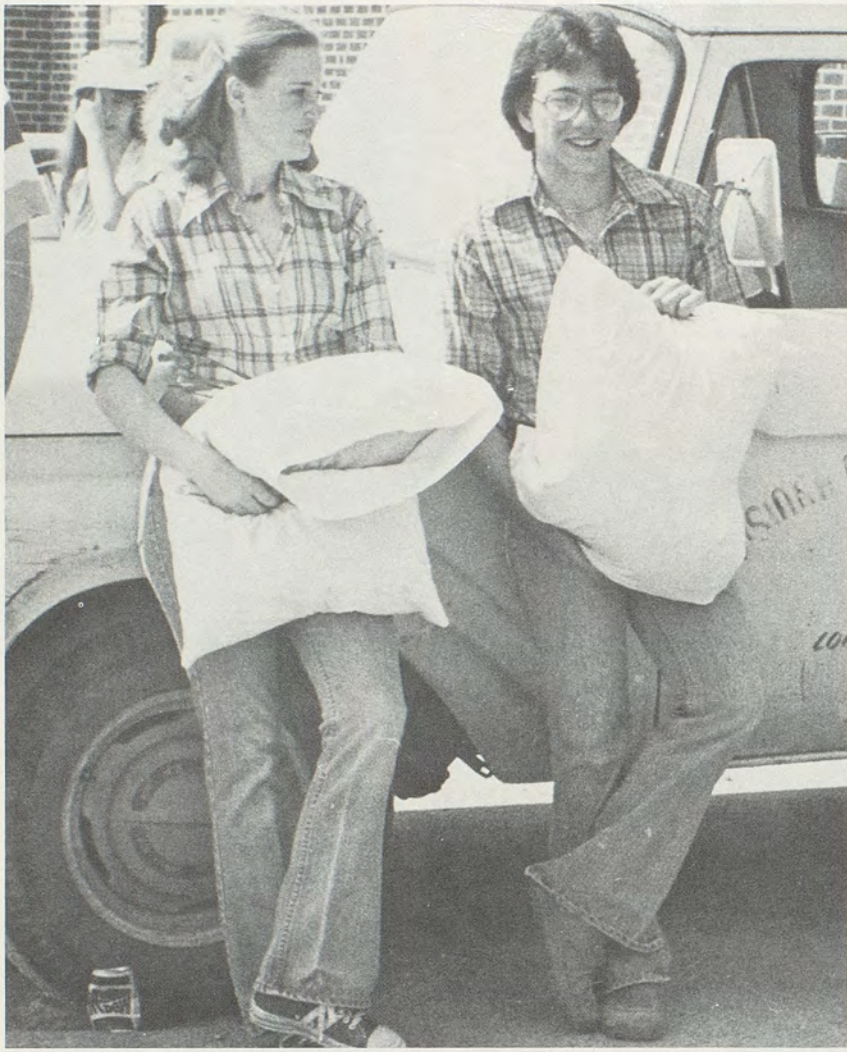

One o'clock, departure time, came quickly. The group straggled back in threes and fours, tired from the day's excitement and activities. Yet, a few were still ready to party, much to the chagrin of those trying to sleep. The bus pulled in at LHS at 3:35 a.m., and the senior trip came to an end. The next day, the seniors listened to radio reports of a massive traffic jam, ending at the entrance to Six Flags!

Scared Frosh

TO STRONG SENIORS

We entered as Freshmen afraid of everything, but ready for anything. We survived the worst of the hazing, game concession stands, and never getting the Spirit Flag. We cheered on our fourth place float as it dragged through the parade in pieces. But beyond all that, we had enough gusto to struggle through Algebra I and the Missouri Constitution test. At the end of the year we moved up in the world as we became Sophomores.

That year began with the entire class getting into the car of the only classmate with a driver's license. We also gained two academic achievements; our first term paper (which stunned our minds) and our first dissection of a pig (which ruined our lunches). Thanks to Mrs. Behringer, we added a new word to our vocabulary — carriage!! Sophomore servers and a rained-out car wash were our first glimpses of prom. We managed to grin and bear it that year because we knew we were half-way through.

Upperclassmen! Juniors! Instead of buttoning, we were doing the hazing. The football season consisted of a pool of Pepsi in our concession stand and cheering our Bulldogs on to Monett. Then came the time we had waited for, our first prom. In one short week we made up for three long years of mistakes. We turned the gym into a "Pathway to Paradise" and paradise it was. For all our hard work, at the year's end we earned the title of "Seniors".

There is no doubt about it, Senior life isn't exactly glamorous, but our spirit made it the best. We were easy-going and relaxed the whole year. Homecoming was one of the best times of the year. We built a first place float and our hilarious "Super Senior" made his debut. Somehow we survived long enough for the Junior class to honor us at Prom, when "Somewhere Over the Rainbow" became the theme for the entire night. At the end of the year, after a frantic search for sponsors, we, the Senior class, went to Six Flags. "Head East" tour, discos, fireworks, and the "Screaming Eagle" made the long evening worthwhile.

And then came the moment we had waited twelve years for. On May 24, 1979, seventy-nine Seniors graduated as the Class of 1979. The night was a glorious blend of memories, happy graduates, proud parents, laughter, and tears.

We lived and learned a great deal in four short years. We came to LHS as an ill-sorted bunch of individuals, and graduated as a CLASS. Now each of us has left a part of his youth behind. Each looks forward to the future.

THE LAST OF A DECADE

1970—President Nixon gave his first State of the Union Message. Joe Frazier became the World Heavyweight Champion. The world watched a total eclipse of the sun either on television or in person. Apollo 13, The U.S.'s third trip to the moon was a failure. The craft never landed, but the three astronauts returned home safely. Charles Manson was put on trial for alleged involvement in the Tate-LaBlanca murders. The public school integration program picked up. President Nixon announced a 5-point plan for withdrawal of troops from Vietnam.

1971—Charles Manson and three women of his "family" were convicted of the Tate-LaBlanca murders. The U.S. Supreme Court unanimously ruled that busing of students may be ordered to achieve racial desegregation. President Nixon announced a 90-day freeze on prices and wages. New York Times began publication of the "Pentagon Papers." The Twenty-Sixth Amendment was ratified by three-fourths of the states, lowering the national voting age to 18 in all local, state, and federal elections. The House of Representatives passed a Constitutional amendment prohibiting discrimination based on sex. One thousand prisoners seized a cell-block in a state prison in Attica, New York.

1972 - Television viewers watched Apollo 16 astronauts walk on the moon. J. Edgar Hoover died. President Nixon met with Mao Tse-Tung in Red China. Governor George Wallace was shot. President Nixon met with Breznev. Tel Aviv airport was the site of a shocking massacre. Mark Spitz won seven gold medals at the Olympics. Apollo 17 was launched. Arab terrorists massacred Israeli athletes at the Olympics in Munich, Germany. President Nixon and Vice-President Agnew were re-elected.

1973 - Ordination of women into the priesthood was accepted by the Catholic Church. The first woman Chaplain was sworn in. A Boeing 707 crashed during the take-off in the Canary Islands. Watergate became an issue as top aides resigned. The POW release began. Cuba signed an Anti-Hijack Pact. The U.S. announced its second devaluation in 14 months. War broke out between the Arab nations and Israel. The Mississippi River Valley experienced one of the worst floods in history.

1974 - Nixon's impeachment inquiry led to his resignation. Gerald Ford became the nation's first unelected President and pardoned President Nixon. The Skylab 3 crew returned safely. The gasoline shortage became a national issue. "Streaking" became a popular sport in many areas.

1975 - New York City was nearly bankrupt. Lynette Fromme attempted to assassinate President Ford. Jimmy Hoffa was kidnapped. Francisco Franco died. Billy Jean King became the top tennis star. Jaws became one of the most popular movies of the 70's.

1976 - THE BICENTENNIAL YEAR. The United States' 200th birthday was celebrated around the world with firecrackers, Roman Candles, parties, and civic projects. The first spacecraft landed a U.S. flag on Mars and began searching for life on that planet. The swine-flu epidemic became a joke rather than a threat. "Jimmy" Carter was elected President of the United States.

1977 - The ERA Movement was in full force. The Panama Canal Treaty was signed. The Alaskan pipeline opened. President Carter made human rights a part of foreign policy. Two 747's collided, killing 582 persons. Solar energy became popular as an alternate energy source. George Willig climbed to the top of the World Trade Center.

1978 - John Paul II became the first non-Italian Pope since 1522. Three men completed the first trans-Atlantic balloon flight. Mohammed Ali gave up his boxing title to Leon Spinks. Wild comedy such as Steve Martin, Mork, and Animal House became popular. Discos became more popular than ever before.

1979 - A nuclear "scare" was begun by the Three Mile Island incident. A Middle East Peace Treaty was signed between Egypt and Israel. The United States and Russia negotiated the Salt Treaty for strategic arms limitation. OPEC oil prices skyrocketed. Drastic flooding disrupted towns along the Mississippi and other major rivers.

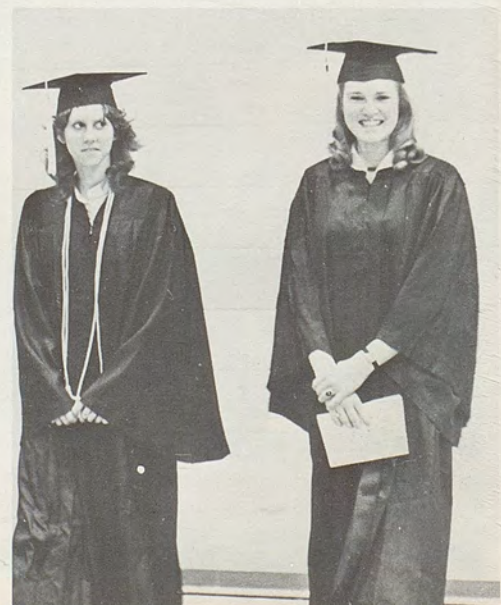

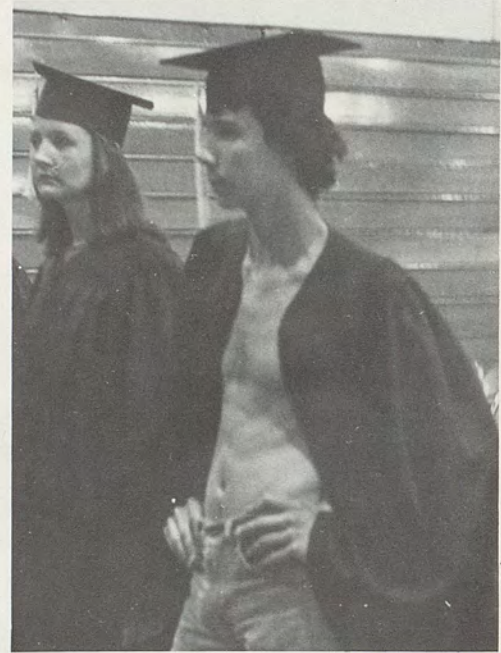

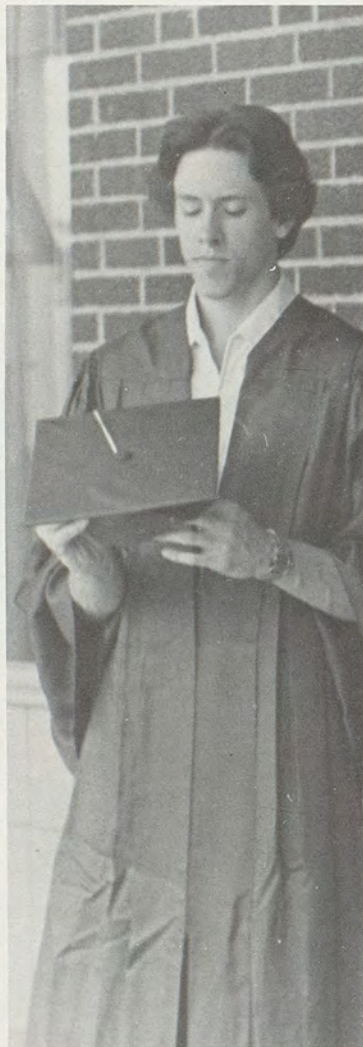

The Seventies were as eventful as any given era in history. They were the setting of flood, war, famine, political strife, and in the United States, a new way of life began, as the social revolution of the Sixties gave way to the more sophisticated, yet relaxed lifestyle of the Seventies. And with each advancing year, today's youth became more aware of world affairs. Each realized the effect of the world upon his own life. These two pages are dedicated to the Class of '79, the last of a decade.

GRADUATION REHEARSAL

The time was drawing nearer. Graduation rehearsal was but a preview to the actual event. But the anticipation, excitement, and emotion were there along with the heat, humidity, and strain, as participants strove for perfection.

HIDE THE TEARS

A laugh, a sigh,
All welled into one,
Trembling hands,
Relief? There's none.

Laugh, dance, skip
Down the hallway,
But hide the tears
For yesterday.

In Kind Memory Of Mr.
Kenneth VanHooser.
Jan. 21, 1925-
March 28, 1979

Above: After 17 years of faithful service to the Louisiana RII school district, Mr. Kenneth VanHooser was fatally injured in an automobile accident March 28, 1979.

He was known to many as a really fine man and a good friend. Many of the students who rode his bus said that he was always there when you needed him.

Mr. Kenneth VanHooser will be sadly missed by everyone who knew him.

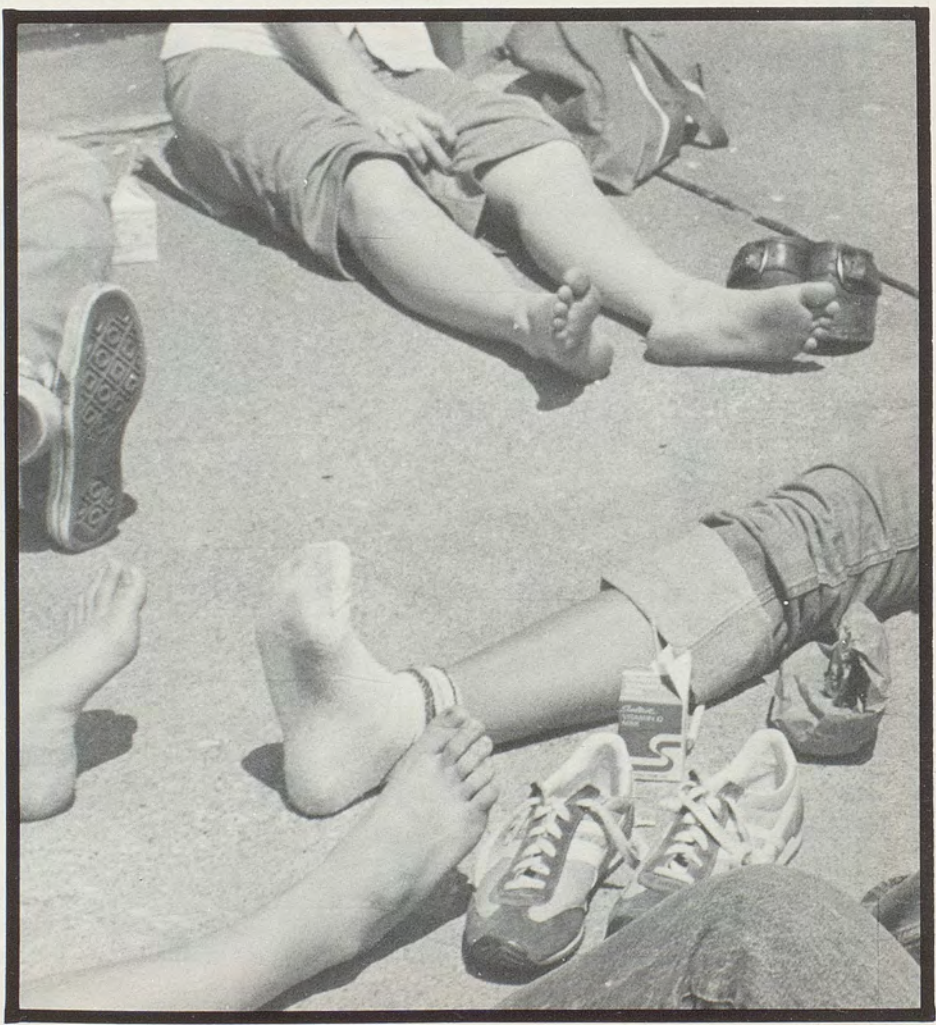

Left: Mr. Kenneth VanHooser proudly receives one of nine citizens band radios from Mr. William Sladek. The radios were bought through a fund in memory of Mrs. Elva Sladek.

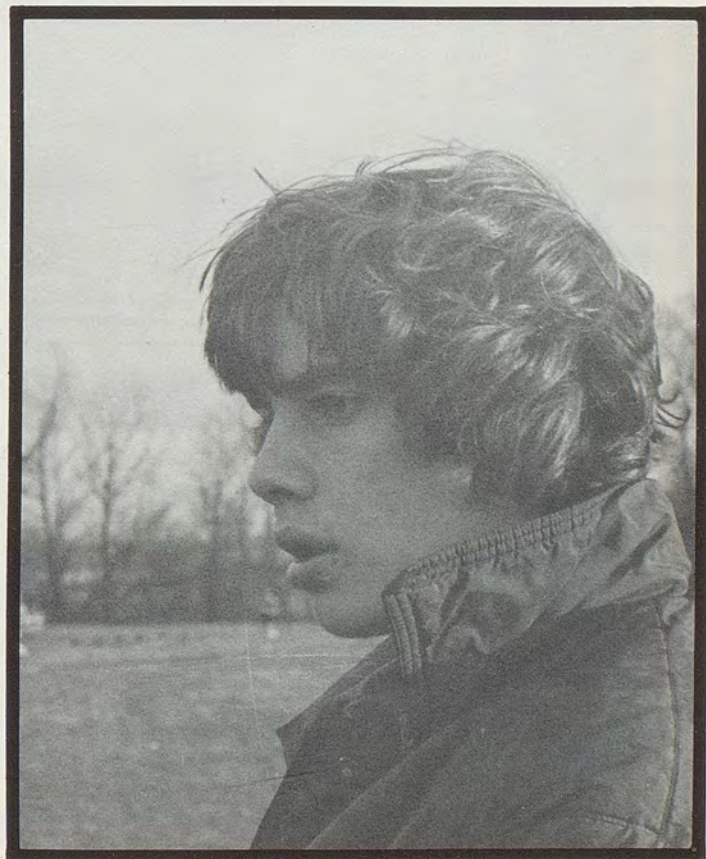

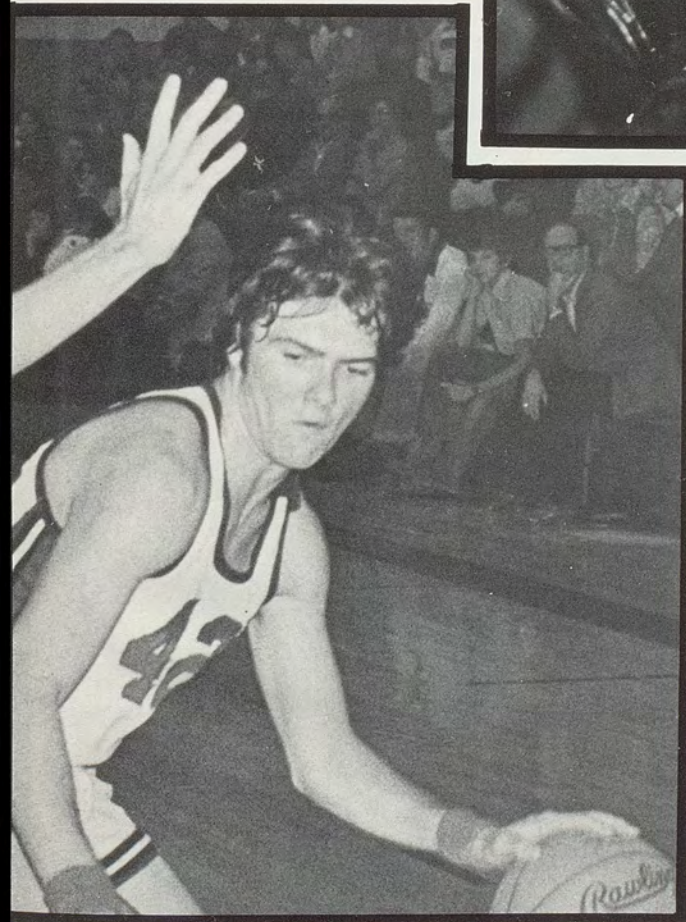

There is a voice
That has no name.
It comes with evening
Or behind the rain.
I don't have time now
To stop and explain.
I just keep moving
'Cause it helps to ease
The Pain

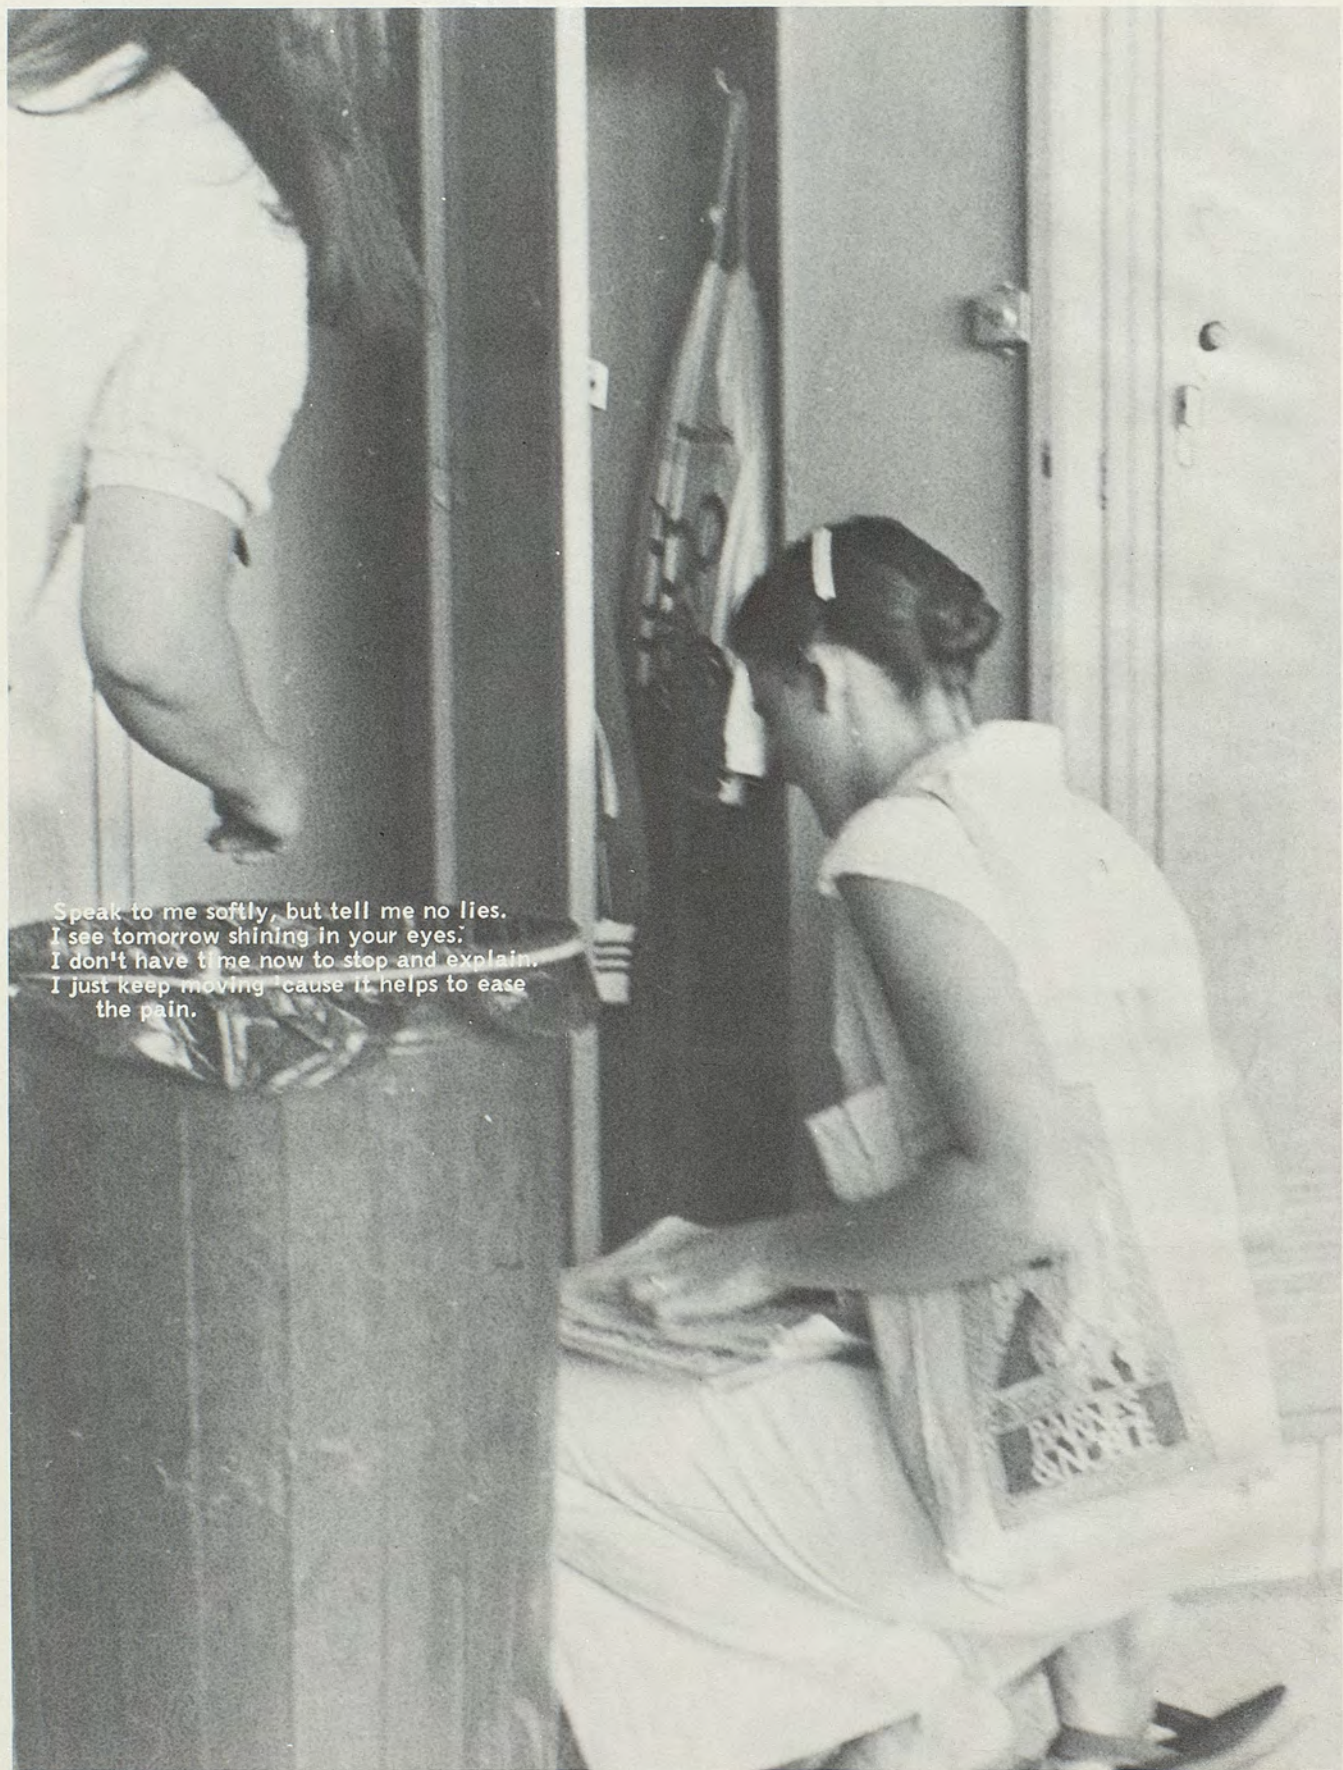

The night has music
That calls to me
Across the canyons
Of an endless sea.
I search for shadows
Of yesterday.
Today can't hold me
'Cause I must be on
My way.

Speak to me softly, but tell me no lies.
I see tomorrow shining in your eyes.
I don't have time now to stop and explain.
I just keep moving 'cause it helps to ease
the pain.
