Simply

Unforgettable

Simply Unforgettable

Most of the class of 2006 has grown up in this small town we call Louisiana, but the new faces became just a few new friends. Although we are known as the "trouble-making" class, we all strive to succeed. Each of us are unique individuals in the class of 2006, but we all get along in the end. Our unique bonds will keep us friends for the rest of our lives. We have all waited for the day to start our own lives, and now that it's here we are ready to face the challenge. The memories that we made in high school will make our lives simple unforgettable.

Sincerely,

Editors,

Heather Jordan,

Chelsea King, and Megan Elledge

Administration

As the school year winds down, I can't help but think about what might have been. I wish the class of '06 could have had a new track to run on. But it wasn't meant to be. Even so, I hope that the seniors have many, many fond memories. To the underclassmen, cherish your years at LHS. Once the years have passed, you can never have them back.

Thanks for the memories and best wishes to the class of 2006. True to our mission, it is my hope that each graduate of Louisiana High School has become a caring and critical thinking citizen.

SOFTBALL

“ We had an incredible season and this team is not only something for the school to be proud of, but the community too. We won 19 games, which sets a new school record. The girls placed 2nd in the Conference and Montgomery Tournaments and won consolation in the Incarnate Word Tournament which featured 16 teams predominatly from the St. Louis areas. The team played in 11 one-run games and went 8-3 in these contests. This is just one way that this team showed its character and heart throughout the season. Four of our seven losses came to a state champion (Highland) and a state runner-up (Silex). Replacing our senior leadership will be tough, but with seven starters returning and some young players on the JV, I expect some very good things for this team next season.”

Coach's Comments

This season was a tough one. We were a very young team this year. There were a lot of bumps and bruises, but the kids improved as the year went on. With only two seniors gone, there is a lot of promise for the future. The thing that I'm the proudest of is the kids never stopped playing. It's real easy to give up when things are going bad, but they always gave their all in every game.

Remember When

It's those last moments... Looking back on the times that we've shared. The ones we thought we would never care...about. Now we pout.

It's the last of our high school days, time to scream "yay!" but, instead, we cry. Everybody knows how hard it is to say "goodbye".

That seven letter word we're always afraid of. Just think, though that you would never have made it without your teachers and friends. Now it's the end... but always...remember when.

Congratulations Seniors!

Class of 2006

The time has come to say goodbye
To our precious school, Louisiana High.
All capped and gowned down the aisle.

Shinning with pride and great big smiles.

As memories turn into tears,
To the classmates we've known for years.

Treasure this moment forever...
Because it can't get any better!
So party hard before the sun hits...
Because we're the class of 2006!!

Andrea-

Our little girl
grew up in the
blink of an eye.

It seems like
yesterday you
were looking at picture books and
now you're looking at colleges.

Stay true to yourself and always stand for what you know is right.

We are so proud of you.

Love-
Mom, Dad, and Ashley

Dear Brooke,

You have made us all very proud of you. It's hard to believe you are a beautiful young lady about to enter a new world.

You have a goal in life to become a nurse.
With your enthusiasm and personality, we know that you will reach that goal. What better reward to receive than to know you are helping those in need.

Stay sweet and keep smiling. Success will come to you.

We love you,

Daddy,
Brandon,
Grandpa &
Grandma
Don

To My Daughter,
Megan

We are very proud of you and the wonderful person you have grown into. You have brought us so much laughter and happiness. You have always given 110% in everything you have done and accomplished. I know I have told you this many times, but your hard work and dedication will pay off. Your dad and I respect you in the way that you always stand for what you feel is right and/or fair, even if it means standing alone. Never be afraid of taking chances. That is what they are there for. Be strong and open minded.

Keep your goals and dreams in sight, and we have no doubt that you will be successful.

We love you with all our hearts!!
Mom, Dad, and Dustin

Margaret,
You complete our family with your loving nature and a healthy set of lungs!
In our eyes you possess traits that are rivaled by no other.
Your family is so proud of your accomplishments and the inner and outer beauty that radiates around you.
We will always encourage and support your endeavors; and in your own words, "Smell you later"!
May God be with you and keep you.

We love you,
Mom, Dad, Zach,

SENIORS

2006

Dane.

It seems like only yesterday when you would play in your Dad's boots, and now you can wear them!

You were our first little miracle and such a joy! How you survived our "first-time" parenting skills, we'll never know! However, you did survive and what a great kid you turned out to be! You are compassionate, talented and have so much potential, so don't just settle for how life turns out-- Go after it! Embrace life--it's such a precious gift!

We love you,
Mom, Dad, and Isaac

Kari.

I can't believe how fast the years have gone by. This is a time full of mixed emotions for us. I know with your sweet and sensitive ways that your future will make us just as proud of you as we have been in the past. Trust in the Lord. He shall direct thy paths.

We Love You.
