Welcome To LHS

From the first day we walked through the doors at LHS our story started.

We have all traveled through these hallways.

Some, more than others.

Throughout this year we have created a story that is all our own.

Now the Very Important
Bulldogs want to share it with you.

Every story needs a goofball, jock, and class clown. Bob, George, and Jughead were portrayed by Kyle, Dorian, and Nathan.

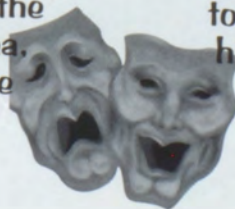

Ziggy Springer is a star in this musical. Logan Collins played the rising rocker.

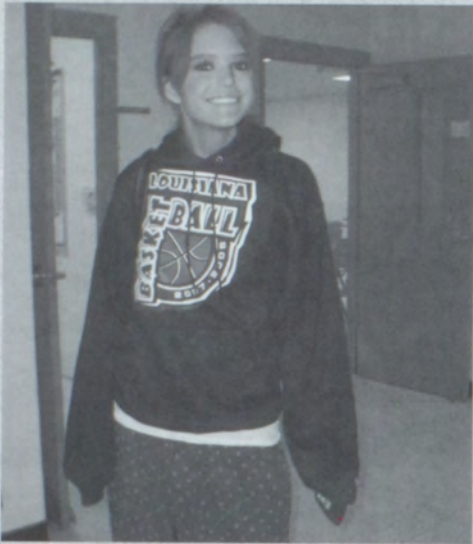

The officer of the play was James. It was his job to keep the troublemakers in line. Chelsea, Rodney and Amelia were the pests.

Ziggy's manager and her assistant weren't too fond of Gracie. Emily played the part of his manager and Katie was her right-hand man.

Memorable Moments

"My favorite thing about softball this year is having a team. So thanks to all the girls who stuck through the whole season as a bulldog. -Navil Ward

"At the end of Senior Night (right after we beat Mark Twain) those silly underclassmen showered me with silly string. -Jillian Richardson

"My first game before I got to first base, I fell down but everybody thought I was trying to slide, but I didn't. -Vivianne Nuñez

"Softball is not a one women sport. You gotta have faith in the other 8 girls out there with you, because you are all playing the same game. You win as a team and you lose as a team."

-Talledega Nights

"Winning Applefest even though we were freezing cold and we dropped the flags a lot!"
-Jenny

"Winning at the Washington Band Festival."
-Tracey

"Senior night: when Carter, Jill, and I tried to make a victory lap around the track, but couldn't make it (we were tired), and so we ran down the 50 yard line!" -Emily

The senior captains, Emily Calvin and Jillian Richardson, decided that the motto for the 2007 fall season was "If you're not first, you're last!" The entire squad worked extremely hard all summer and spiced up their performances with a little Spanish fever. They practiced before school and even got together after school to perfect their routines in each other's yard. Their excellence was awarded by taking home first in both the Colorfest and Applefest Parade's. They also received "Outstanding Auxiliary" in the Washington Festival, placing 1st in their division, and 3rd overall. Halftime shows were given a little more pizzazz by using a mixture of hoops, flags, and latin dancing. These girls have been through all kinds of weather conditions, and put a lot of time into this year's guard. With only two graduating seniors, the Colorguard is expected to continue to be amazing.

Cheerleading

-Bring It On

"On the last boys game, when the score was so close and we cheered like crazy!"

-Megan

"All the fun bus rides to and from every game!"

-Emily

"Getting ready before every game at Carter's house."

-Nicole

During the football and basketball season, seniors Carter Vieira (captain) and Jessica Cashman (captain), along with the rest of the cheerleading squad, spent many nights "getting pumped" for the game ahead. Though the season was challenging with multiple games plus a small squad, the girls carried their enthusiasm and peppy spirit, and never gave up on their team. Go Bulldogs!
