*"A lot of people called it prison when I was but these are my roots and this is where I belong
'cause everybody knows me and I know my way around and I believe that's the way we should live wouldn't trade one single day here"*

A photograph of a forest floor. Large, gnarled tree roots are prominent in the foreground, extending across the frame. The ground is covered with fallen leaves in shades of green, yellow, and red. In the background, trees with dense foliage are visible against a bright sky. The overall scene is a natural, autumnal setting.

"...I miss you; I miss your smile..."

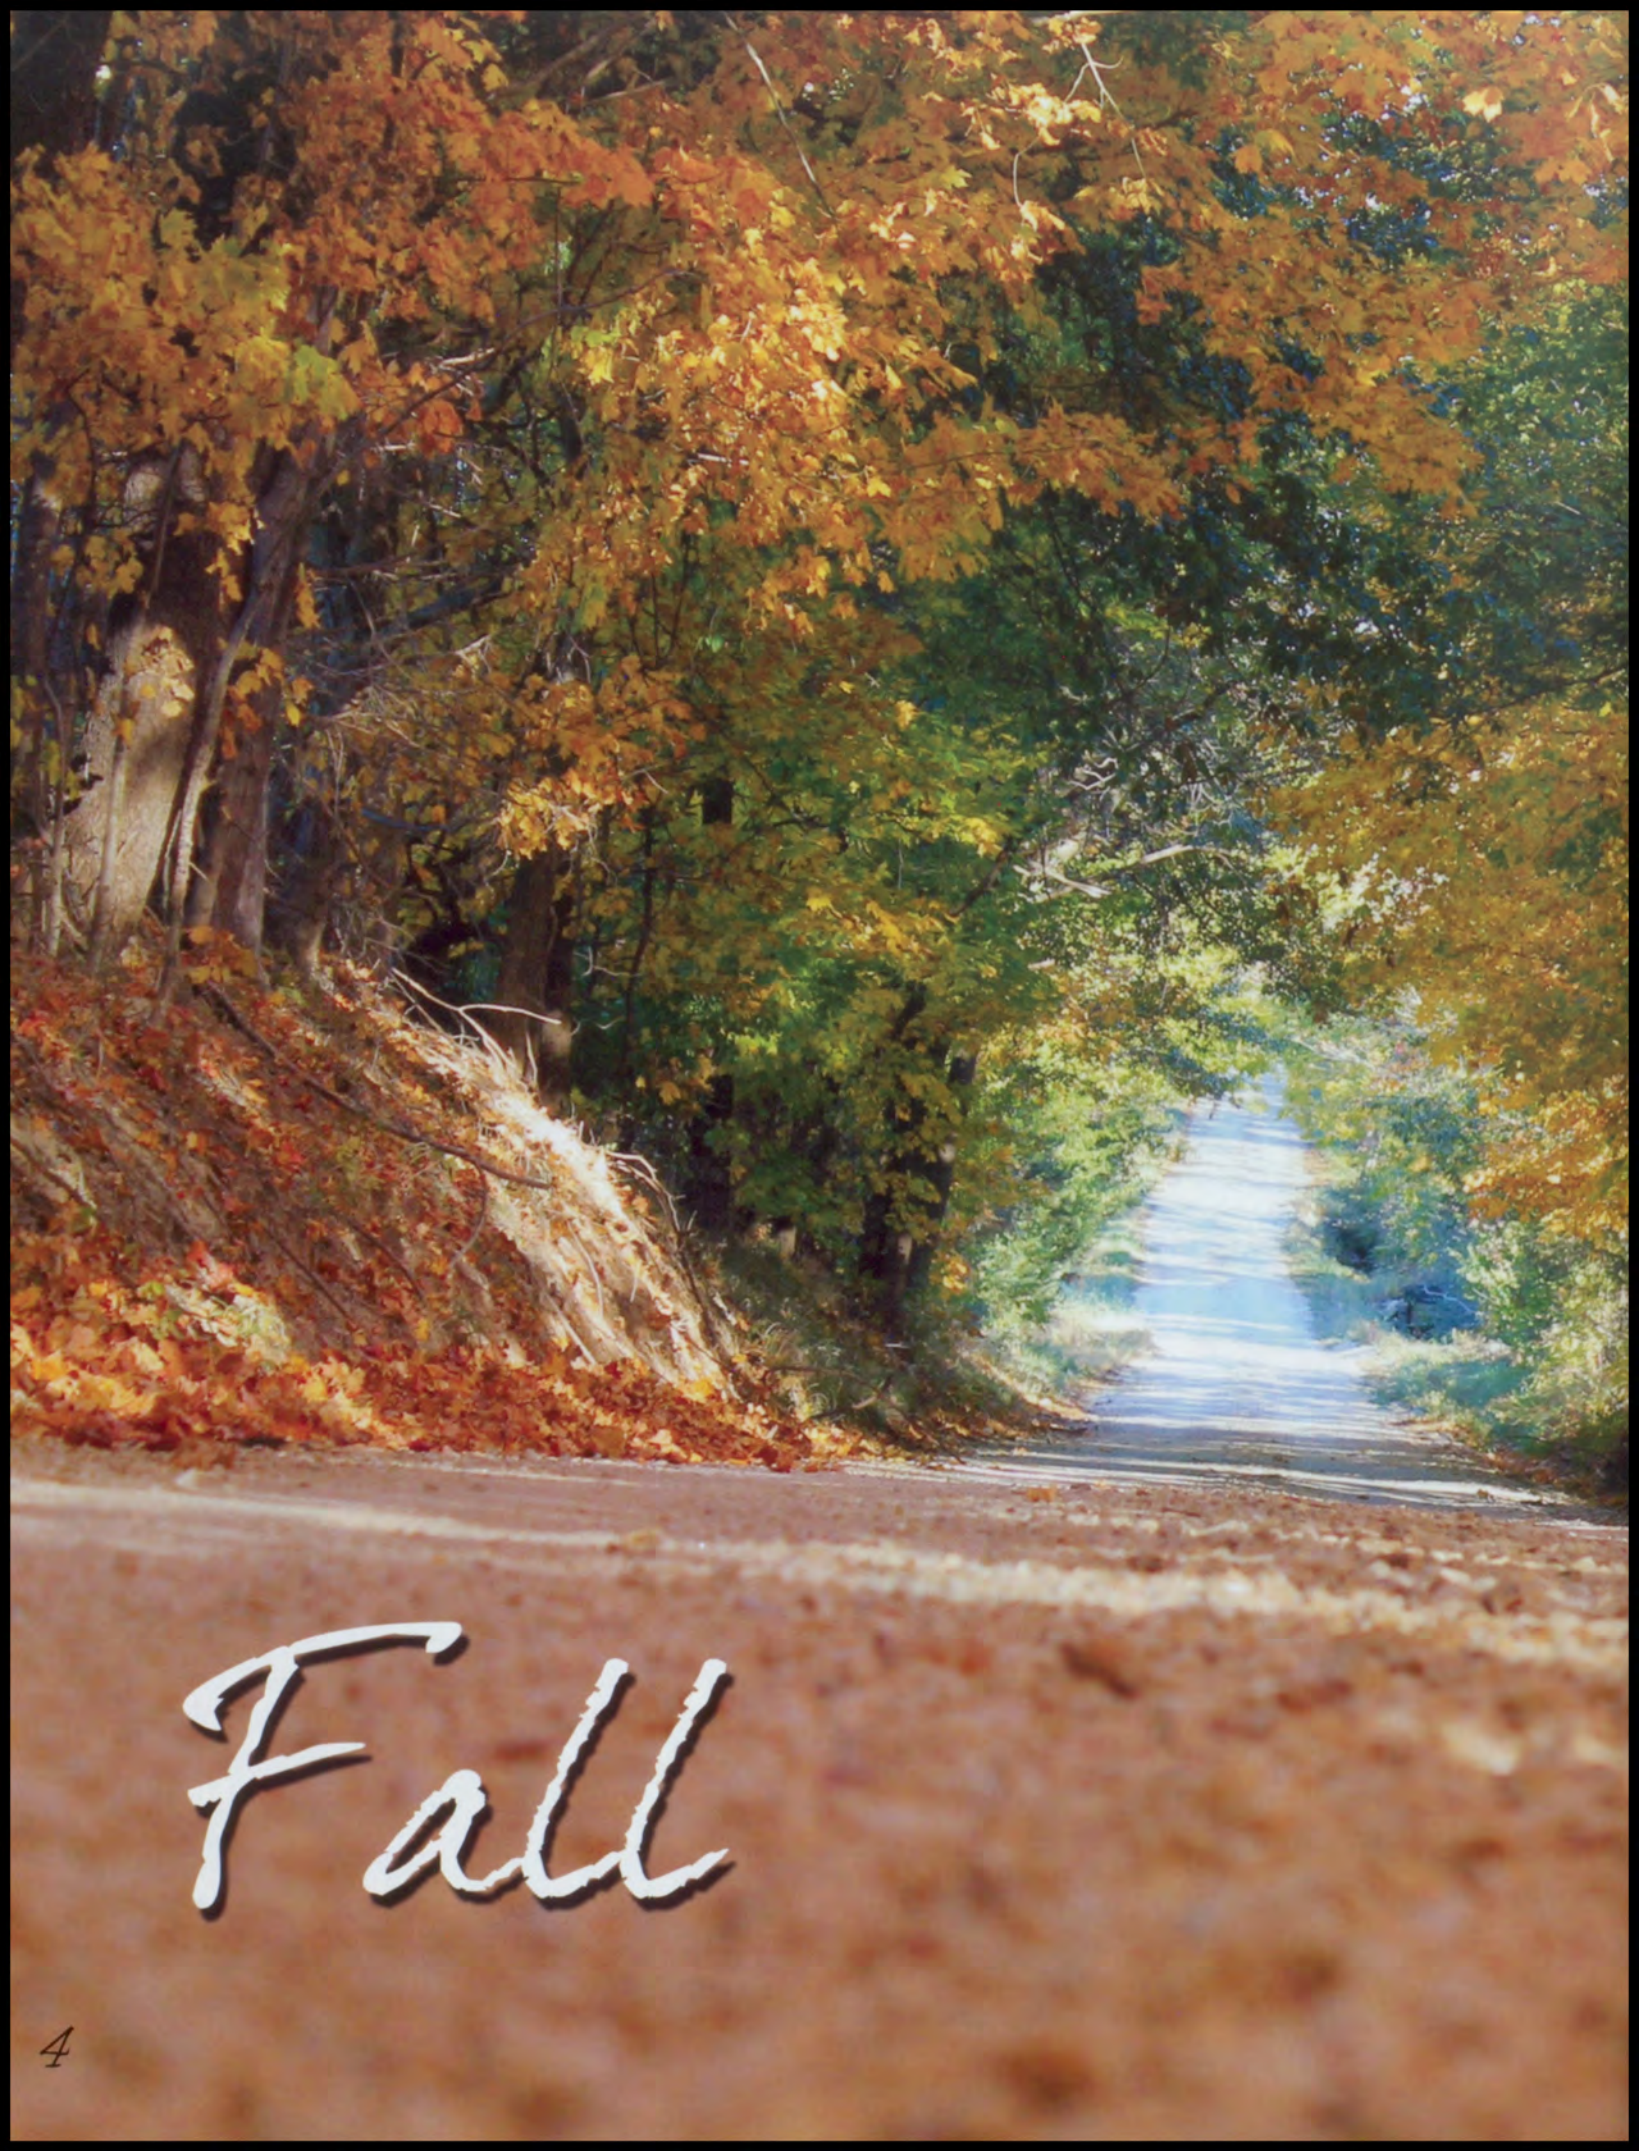

PALERMO, ITALY

*"It's something unpredictable,
but in the end is right,
I hope you had the time of your life."*

This year, the students of Louisiana High School welcomed Giovanni Verde, Rotary Exchange Student, from Palermo, Italy. First semester, Giovanni was hosted by the Haines family. Senior Bly Haines states, "My favorite part about hosting Giovanni was spending time with him and learning about Italy." Bly describes Giovanni as "the brother he never had". "Knowing that Giovanni will have to go back to Italy is the hardest thing about hosting him," Bly says. During second semester, Giovanni was hosted by the Deacon family. The Deacon family also had the privilege of hosting Gaywen, 2013-2014 Rotary Exchange Student, so they had some experience with hosting. Junior Emmet Deacon stated, "Giovanni is such a blast and always tries to make you smile no matter what the situation is." When asked what the most surprising thing was when he came to Louisiana, he responded, "The school was the most surprising, because this school is a lot easier than my school in Italy." He describes how difficult it was to understand all of the students, but it got easier. Giovanni said, "I really like American food, but I'm really scared because American food is fat, LOL!" In the future, Giovanni may want to come back to America to attend college. He would love to come back to visit all of his friends he made here at LHS, because he will miss all of them.

Savannah Boehlein

Savannah,

There is a voice inside of you that whispers all day long, "I feel that this is right for me, I know that this is wrong." No teacher, preacher, parent, friend, or wise man can decide; what's right for you, just listen to the voice that speaks inside. (Shel Silverstein)

We are proud of you. Continue to trust in God and be yourself. After that, everything will happen just as it should.

Love,
Your Family

Tyler Burleson

Chayse Hepler

Chayse,
 Even though I'm your mom, you have taught me so much. Early entry wristbands are a must, kittens are cute, screamo is scary at 2 a.m., always hug your daughter, and being your mom is the most amazing gift. As your new journey begins I have no doubt you will achieve everything your heart desires.

Love you,
 Mom

Chayse,

I look forward to watching you write the next chapter in your life as an independent, intelligent, ambitious woman, and I couldn't be more proud of you. You are motivated to better yourself and it shows in how you look towards the future and challenge yourself with classes and exploring new things in the world. I have enjoyed watching you play in the band, game and create beautiful works of art through your enlightened outlook on life. Though you are sometimes daring and seem to enjoy that shock factor, your strong and beautiful personality will ensure that you have an unforgettable life.

I love you always, Dad :)

Haley Hepler

"Follow your heart" seem so cliché. But you have the most beautiful heart. And as you head out into life I know the people you meet along the way will be the lucky ones. So follow your beautiful heart down whatever side street, gravel road, or major highway (even if someone else is driving). I'm sure it will lead you to the perfect place.

Love,
Mom

As you embark on the next page of your life I could not be more proud of how you have grown up. You are a strong, intelligent, caring person who sometimes wears her heart on her sleeve, a hoodie sleeve that is. You are one-of-a-kind and very artistic and I have enjoyed watching your talents flourish in your art. Though you are sometimes shy, I see your inner spark take over when you are passionate about something. I have enjoyed watching you game, enjoy concerts and music, and take on all new things life has offered you over the years. You are a thoughtful, beautiful person and I love you always.

Dad

Katie House

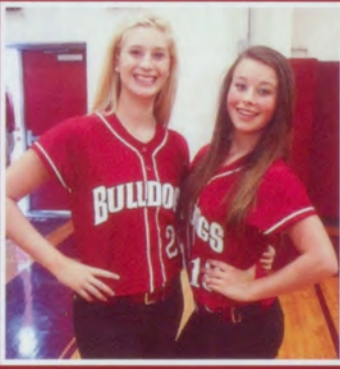

Katie,

Margaret Matteson

Dearest Margaret,

It doesn't seem possible that four years of high school have come and gone. You will soon be heading out into new territory, knowing your journey began at the farm in Louisiana. Your father and I have no doubt that you are going to "kill it"! We couldn't be more proud of you! I admire your dedication, your sense of humor, and your genuine self-confidence. You have made wonderful choices. However and wherever you decide to live, I know it will be with complete conviction! You are the light of our lives and we love you with all our hearts!

Mom and Dad

Dawson Miller

Dawson,

Since the first day you have had us on our toes, but we are so incredibly proud of the young man that you have become. It has been such a joy watching you reach each milestone, especially this one. Your desire to serve and the love you exhibit to others is truly inspiring. Those character traits will definitely take you far in your future career. As you take this next step on your journey, always remember: God first, others second, and yourself last. We are very excited to see what God has planned for you!

Love,

Dad, Mom, Cassidy, Taylor, & Haylee

Juliette Moore

Dear Juliette,

Your dad and I remember sitting in the kitchen, with you and your sister, the night after 8th grade graduation, and talking about how quickly the next four years would go by. "Sunrise sunset... Swiftly flow the days...Swiftly fly the years... One season following another. Laden with happiness and tears. What words of wisdom can I give...?" Remember to smile; you light up the room with your smile. Remember to be yourself; because there is only one "Sweetchop". And remember to reach for the moon, follow your dreams, and always believe in yourself. We wish you the happiest of days ahead. Congratulations.

We love you,
Mom and Dad

James Moravec
